

As we have promised it, here comes the information about how to get to the Actiondays in Oldenburg/Blankenburg. We will not sleep in tents but in one big room (maybe also in some flats) in the city of Oldenburg (the adress you find below with the travel information how to get there by train). There will be a shuttle service for those, who have neither a car nor a bicycle.

Further below you will find the program for the days. All further information you find unter www.althambra.de/nolager. There is an info telephone for the days: 0160-96857383.

By Train

We will fetch you at the announced times!

There is also a bus to the camp. Bus nr. 316 departs directly in front of the station. You have to take the one with direction "Blankenburg" (get of at "Blankenburg") or "Wüstring" (get of at "Neuenwege" and walk the last 1.5km).

You can leave your luggage at the place were we sleep. It is next to the station (approx. 2min by foot). When you come out of the station, yust cross the street an follow the "Kaiserstraße". You will find the "ALSO" on the right side (number 19).

From Rostock:

On Friday you have to start at 9:07am (platform 7) to be in Oldenburg by 3pm. Just have a look at the times for Hamburg.

If you just want to come to the demonstration on Saturday, you have to take a train at 7:14am and you have to switch trains about five times ... quite annoying :o(.
